KAREN D. THACKER,

Plaintiff,

v.

CAROLYN W. COLVIN, Acting Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:15-cv-00466-RCJ-PAL

ORDER

(IFP App – Dkt. #1)

Plaintiff Karen D. Thacker has requested authority pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915 to proceed in forma pauperis and submitted a Complaint (Dkt. #1). This proceeding was referred to this court by 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Rules IB 1-4 and 1-9.

I. In Forma Pauperis Application

Plaintiff has submitted the affidavit required by § 1915(a) showing an inability to prepay fees and costs or give security for them. Accordingly, the request to proceed in forma pauperis will be granted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). The court will now review Plaintiff's Complaint.

II. Screening the Complaint

Upon granting a request to proceed in forma pauperis, a court must additionally screen a complaint pursuant to § 1915(e). See Lopez v. Smith, 203 F.3d 1122, 1129 (9th Cir. 2000) (en banc) ("section 1915(e) applies to all in forma pauperis complaints"). The simplified pleading standard set forth in Rule 8(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applies to all civil actions, with limited exceptions. Swierkiewicz v. Sorema N. A., 534 U.S. 506, 512 (2002). For purposes of 28 U.S.C. § 1915's screening requirement, a properly pled complaint must therefore provide "a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." Cf. Fed.

1 R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2); Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007). While Rule 8 does 2 not require detailed factual allegations, it demands “more than labels and conclusions” or a
3 “formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action.” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678
4 (2009) (citing Papasan v. Allain, 478 U.S. 265, 286 (1986)).

5 Federal courts are given the authority dismiss a case if the action is legally “frivolous or 6 malicious,” fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary relief from 7 a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). Rule 12(b)(6) provides for 8 dismissal of a complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Review
9 under Rule 12(b)(6) is essentially a ruling on a question of law. North Star Intern. v. Arizona
10 Corp. Comm’n, 720 F.2d 578, 580 (9th Cir. 1983). In considering whether a plaintiff has stated 11 a claim upon which relief can be granted, all material allegations in the complaint are accepted as 12 true and are to be construed in the light most favorable to the plaintiff. Russell v. Landrieu, 13 621 F.2d 1037, 1039 (9th Cir. 1980). Allegations of a pro se complaint are held to less stringent 14 standards than formal pleading drafted by lawyers. Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520 (1972); 15 Hebbe v. Pliler, 627 F.3d 338, 342 & n. 7 (9th Cir. 2010) (finding that liberal construction of 16 pro se pleadings is required after Twombly and Iqbal). When a court dismisses a complaint
17 under Section 1915(e), the plaintiff should be given leave to amend the complaint with directions
18 as to curing its deficiencies, unless it is clear from the face of the complaint that the deficiencies 19 could not be cured by amendment. See Cato v. United States, 70 F.3d 1103, 1106 (9th Cir.
20 1995).

21 Plaintiff’s complaint challenges a decision by the Social Security Administration (“SSA”)
22 denying Plaintiff benefits under Title XVI of the Social Security Act. To state a valid benefits 23 claim, a complaint must “give the defendant fair notice of what the plaintiff’s claim is and the 24 grounds upon which it rests.” Swierkiewicz, 534 U.S. at 512. To do so, the complaint should 25 state: when and how she exhausted her administrative remedies with the SSA and the nature of 26 Plaintiff’s disability, including when Plaintiff claims she became disabled. The complaint should 27 also contain a short and concise statement identifying the nature of Plaintiff’s disagreement with 28 the SSA’s determination and show that Plaintiff is entitled to relief. Although this showing need

1 not be made in great detail, it must be presented in sufficient detail for the court to understand
 2 the disputed issues so that it can meaningfully screen the complaint. See 4 Soc. Sec. Law &
 3 Prac. § 56:4 (2015).

4 A. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies

5 Before Plaintiff can sue the SSA in federal court, Plaintiff must exhaust administrative 6 remedies. 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). See Bass v. Social Sec. Admin., 872 F.2d 832, 833 (9th Cir. 1989)
 7 (per curium) (“Section 405(g) provides that a civil action may be brought only after (1) the 8 claimant has been party to a hearing held by the Secretary, and (2) the Secretary has made a final 9 decision on the claim”). Generally, if the SSA denies a claimant’s application for disability 10 benefits, he can request reconsideration of the decision. If the claim is denied at the 11 reconsideration level, a claimant may request a hearing before an Administrative Law Judge 12 (“ALJ”). If the ALJ denies the claim, a claimant may request review of the decision by the 13 Appeals Council. If the Appeals Council declines to review the ALJ’s decision, a claimant may 14 then request review by the United States District Court. See generally 20 C.F.R. §§ 404, 416.
 15 Plaintiff alleges that on February 3, 2015, the Appeals Council denied Plaintiff’s request for 16 review, and the ALJ’s decision became the final decision of the Commissioner. Thus, it appears 17 Plaintiff has her exhausted administrative remedies.

18 Once Plaintiff has exhausted the administrative remedies, she can obtain review of an 19 SSA decision denying benefits by commencing a civil action within sixty days after notice of a 20 final decision. Id. An action for judicial review of a determination by the SSA must be brought 21 in a District Court of the United States for the judicial district in which the Plaintiff resides. Id.

22 B. Grounds for Plaintiff’s Appeal and the Nature of Plaintiff’s Disability

23 Plaintiff’s complaint seeks judicial review of the Commissioner’s decision denying 24 benefits and requests the court reverse that decision, or alternatively, remand this matter for a 25 new hearing. A district court can affirm, modify, reverse, or remand a decision if Plaintiff has 26 exhausted his administrative remedies and timely filed a civil action. However, judicial review 27 of the Commissioner’s decision to deny benefits is limited to determining: (a) whether there is 28 substantial evidence in the record as a whole to support the findings of the Commissioner; and

1 (b) whether the correct legal standards were applied. Morgan v. Commissioner of the Social 2 Security Adm., 169 F.3d 595, 599 (9th Cir. 1999).

3 In her Complaint (Dkt. #1), Plaintiff contends there is not substantial medical or 4 vocational evidence in the record to support: (a) the legal conclusion he is not disabled within the 5 meaning of the Social Security Act; or (b) the Commissioner's finding that Plaintiff could 6 perform substantial gainful activity. Plaintiff asserts that the record supports a finding that 7 Plaintiff is disabled and has been continuously disabled at all relevant times. Finally, Plaintiff 8 alleges new evidence exists that warrants a remand of this matter for further proceedings.

9 The complaint does not state a claim for relief upon which relief can be granted. It does 10 not allege the nature of Plaintiff disability or when it commenced, instead alleging only "Plaintiff 11 Karen D. Thacker is, and at all times relevant to this action, disabled." See Complaint (Dkt. #1-1 12 at ¶ 5). Additionally, Plaintiff alleges merely that the Commissioner's decision to deny Plaintiff 13 benefits was wrong, but Plaintiff has not indicated why the decision is wrong, other than by 14 reciting the general standards that govern the court's review of the SSA's decision. Id. at ¶ 9.
15 Rule 8's pleading standard requires more than a "formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause 16 of action" and more than "labels and conclusions." Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678; Waitson v. Carter, 17 668 F.3d 1108, 1112 (9th Cir. 2012). A complaint merely stating that the SSA's decision was 18 wrong and failing to describe plaintiff's disability is insufficient to satisfy Rule 8's pleading 19 requirement because the complaint does not provide "fair notice of what the plaintiff's claim is 20 and the grounds upon which it rests." Cf. Swierkiewicz, 534 U.S. at 512; Starr v. Baca, 652 F.3d 21 1202 (9th Cir. 2011) (addressing post-Iqbal pleading standards and holding that a complaint 22 "must contain sufficient allegations of underlying facts to give fair notice and to enable the 23 opposing party to defend itself effectively"). Accordingly, Plaintiff's complaint does not state a 24 claim upon which relief can be granted, and it will be dismissed with leave to amend.

25 Accordingly,

26 IT IS ORDERED that:

- 27 1. Plaintiff's request to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED. Plaintiff shall not 28 be required to pay the filing fee of four hundred dollars.

2. Plaintiff is permitted to maintain this action to conclusion without the necessity of prepayment of any additional fees or costs or the giving of a security therefor. This Order granting leave to proceed in forma pauperis shall not extend to the issuance of subpoenas at government expense.
3. The Clerk of Court shall file the complaint but shall not issue summons.
4. The complaint is DISMISSED WITH LEAVE TO AMEND. Plaintiff shall have until May 14, 2015, to file an amended complaint, if Plaintiff believes the noted deficiencies can be cured
5. Failure to file an amended complaint in accordance with this order may result in a recommendation to the district judge that this case be closed.

Dated this 14th day of April, 2015.
